MOTION FOR WARRANT ON VIOLATION OF RELEASE CONDITIONS

Now comes the United States of America by its attorneys, Rod J. Rosenstein, United States Attorney, and Philip S. Jackson, Assistant United States Attorney, and on the following facts moves this Court to issue a warrant for the arrest of the above-captioned defendant pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3148.

1. On October 12, 2012, the Defendant, Stephen Lamkin (Lamkin), was sentenced to a term of 1 year and 1 day's incarceration, having previously been found in violation of the terms and conditions of his supervised release. He was not immediately placed in the custody of the Bureau of Prisons, but instead was ordered to self-surrender to Bureau of Prison no later than December 6, 2012.

2. On his arrest for this violation, Lamkin had been conditionally released and was under U.S. Probation and Pretrial Service supervision. The terms and conditions of that conditional release remained in effect during the period of time he awaited designation to a BOP facility.

3. According to a deputy of the U.S. Marshal's Service, the Defendant has failed to surrender to the Bureau of Prisons as was directed by this Court, and the Defendant is currently at large.

4. Accordingly, this Office now desires that an arrest warrant be issued for this violation.

5. On that basis, and on the authority of 18 U.S.C. §3148, an arrest warrant may be issued on the motion of an attorney for the government alleging a violation of condition(s) of a defendant's release.

Wherefore, it is respectfully requested that on the foregoing, this Court issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant.

Respectfully submitted,

Rod J. Rosenstein
United States Attorney
